About This Game

You're alone in the desert with an endless supply of fireworks. Stand below a starry night sky as you launch waves of explosives up into the air.

Fireworks Desert Blast is a technical demo designed for the HTC Vive that introduces players of all ages and skills to virtual reality. The demo offers light sandbox gameplay for players to explore their physical space and experiment with the physics engine. This is a great introduction for players who are new to VR.

Features:

- Roman Candles & Regular Fireworks
- Sandbox experience
- New to VR Tutorial

In its current state this project is not intended to be treated as a full game but as a playful, experimental experience for VR. Just a simple fun experience. Enjoy!

fireworks desert blast

Kids love this. Suitable for my 6years old. He got many WOOOW experiences.. Great intro into the VR experience. Sound is really good and music is nice and relaxing, too. Watching other's play this and acting like kids in a sandbox is funny, so get this if you want to show off the possibilites of VR, without throwing them into something too hardcore. It's simplicity is it's charm.
